Alumni News

The New Board of AA on Campus

Always on the lookout for new and better ways to communicate and satisfy graduates' needs, the new board of the Alumni Association piloted by Youssef Ittobane, in collaboration with the PR Officer of Shell Morocco gave a presentation on February, 03. It was mainly about the AA vision and goals. The role of AA is to strengthen the relationship between alumni and the university. Among the major actions AA is undertaking are the creation of an IT collaborative space and a project with HR managers named "Think AUI first". AA is led by a board of volunteer members who would like to offer graduates tangible opportunities for involvement and to create a network of alumni leaders willing to contribute to the continued advancement of AUI, its students and its graduates. AA's goal is to "be the trusted bridge between the alumni of the past and those of the future".

A Growing number of MAISD graduates in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Seven graduates from the school of humanities and social sciences, international studies major, have been lately hired by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Congratulations to the school of humanities and social sciences and to its graduates!
